

Community Group Guide

Week of May 8

This is Southwest: "God-Centered Worship"
Isaiah 43:9-10

Sermon Discussion Questions

Have you ever wasted time? What do you waste time doing?

Have you read "Purpose Driven Life"?

Do you know the first four words of the book?

Why is it true that life is not about us? (Look at Romans 11:36)

What is God-centered worship?

What does authentic worship mean? Why is it a hotbed for misunderstanding God-centered worship?

Who made us? Why were we made?

Why are we confused about worship?

Would you agree that we have unintellectualized our faith?

Have you ever seen the New City Catechism? You can look it up and download an app online.

What does the Westminster Shorter Catechism say the chief end of man is?

What does it mean to worship and glorify God forever? Does this idea align with scripture? Why or why not?

What does 1 Corinthians 10:31 say?

What does it mean that all humans worship?

What does it mean to try to satisfy ourselves with trivialities?

What do you do regularly to keep God at the center of your life instead of on the side of your life?

Worship should realign our desires to God's desires. How often do you think you should enter into worship to keep your priorities aligned with God?

What do we teach our kids when we regularly set aside worship with God's people to do other things?

What does it mean when Pastor Jeff says, "We can teach our children what to know, but we reproduce who we are in our children"?

What does this statement mean? "God is most glorified in us when we are most satisfied in him."

Why should it matter to a son what a father finds as most important?

What does it mean when Pastor Jeff says, "The cross and the resurrection is not primarily about us?"

Spring 2021